

February 5, 1973

SPEAKER: The bill is advanced. Do we have other business on the desk?

CLERK: Yes, Mr. President. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to have printed in the Journal an amendment to L.B. 174, signed Senator Whitney.

SPEAKER: Are there objections to the Senator's request? Hearing none it is so ordered. It will be printed in the Journal.

CLERK: Mr. President (committee hearings read). That's all I have Mr. President. I have a motion to adjourn.

SPEAKER: Is there any further business to come before the body?

CLERK: Mr. President, I move we adjourn until 9:00 A.M. Signed Senator Proud.

SPEAKER: Senator Keyes, did you have something you had to take up before we adjourn? Senator Keyes.

SENATOR KEYES: Yes I did, I had two bills when I left last Tuesday. I have been unable to find them. I thought they had been introduced. If they, they are not world shaking but if I can ever locate them, I may ask to have them introduced, I'm not sure. Thank you.

SPEAKER: Two missing bills and a statute missing. Hmm.

SENATOR KEYES: No, two bills that were drafted and I have been unable to find them. They said they put them on my desk but I haven't been able to find them. I was gone for three days.

SPEAKER: We have before us a motion to adjourn until tomorrow at 9:00. All those in favor of the motion say aye. Those opposed say no. It is so ordered, we're adjourned until 9:00 tomorrow.
